

With Parimalam's demise we have lost 25 Kirkbyites since January.

What was sad about Parimalam is that I discovered her after her demise - not while she was alive. Nobody mentioned her and nobody provided me with her contact details. What a pity.

Like Parimalam, there may be other Kirkbyites who are not known to me. Please if there are such Kirkbyites, kindly inform me so that they can be brought into the Kirkby fold. Let them feel during the twilight of lives that they have not been forgotten. They are still members of the Kirkby family!

With very warm regards,
RAMA

Last night we were informed that Mrs. PARIMALAN KANDIAH of 1953-55 batch passed away. Subsequently Punithavathy (53-55) called me to inform that the late Parimalam passed away in London on Friday, 6-10-2017.

It seems that she visits her bachelor son very often and it was during the latest visit that Parimalam passed away.

On 13 October 2017 (Friday) Puni called to provide further information. Parimalam's funeral took place in London on Thursday, 12 October 2017 and her ashes would be brought back to Malaysia.

She also alerted me to the Obituary in Thursday's Star (12-10-2017). According to the Obituary, Parimalam's funeral took place at the Chapel of Rest, Kent, U.K. and thereafter the cortege would leave at 12.00 pm for cremation at the Garden of England Crematorium.

There will be a ceremony at her residence in Kuala Lumpur on Sunday, 15 October 2017.

I sent a sms message of condolence on 17 october 2017:

“On behalf of all the Kirkbyites I extend our deepest sympathies on the demise of your beloved mother”.

And I received the following response:

“Many thanks. We appreciate this”.
