

Melbourne: 27 September 2016

It was a happy group of Kirkbyites from Penang and Melbourne who met on a sunny though cold afternoon in Siddha's house in Melbourne together with their spouses and children and grand children on the 27 September. Siddha, Ah Bee and Aru's son had kindly invited us over for a sumptuous lunch which Ah Bee had prepared with the help of Aru and granddaughter. Rosalyn's son, Chee Keong drove all the way from Geelong with sister Irene and his children. James together with his charming wife Marina too was with us. Sau San and husband Sing who just returned from a trip overseas were also present. We had much to talk about and Ah Bee continuously played a perfect host together with son, Siddha. We all reluctantly dispersed but looked forward to meet again when Angeline Chang will be in Melbourne in October.
